

TO PLAN A GROUP PROGRAM

at the Scott Arboretum of Swarthmore College

The staff members of the Scott Arboretum offer a variety of programs to share our horticultural knowledge in the Wister Education Center & Greenhouse situated on the Swarthmore College campus. These programs are designed with garden clubs, plant societies, and other related organizations and groups in mind.

To request a program, call 610-328-8025 or email scott@swarthmore.edu. All dates and topics must be approved before advertising your event and will be confirmed via email.
